

Privacy Act Statement:

Authority: The FBI's acquisition, preservation, and exchange of fingerprints and associated information as disclosed on the respective Applicant Information form, 1-783, is generally authorized under 28 U.S.C. 534. In accordance with this order, the FBI will release to the subjects of identification records copies of such records upon submission of a written request, satisfactory proof of identity of the person whose identification record is requested and a processing fee. Providing the associated information is voluntary; however, failure to do so may affect completion or approval of your application.

Principal Purpose: Title 28 CFR Part 16, Subpart C the Production of FBI Identification Records in Response to Written Requests by Subjects Thereof contains the regulations of the FBI concerning procedures to be followed when the subject of an Identification Record requests production of that record to review it or to obtain a change, correction, or updating of that record. By order dated September 24, 1973, the Attorney General of the United States directed that the FBI, publish rules for the dissemination of arrest and conviction records to the subjects of such records upon request. The FBI may retain your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics in NGI after the completion of this application and, while retained, your fingerprints may continue to be compared against other fingerprints submitted to or retained by NGI.

Routine Uses: During the processing of this application and for as long thereafter as your fingerprints and associated information/biometrics are retained in NGI, your information may be disclosed pursuant to your consent, and may be disclosed without your consent as permitted by the Privacy Act of 1974 and all applicable Routine Uses as may be published at any time in the Federal Register, including the Routine Uses for the NGI system and the FBI's Blanket Routine Uses. Routine uses include, but are not limited to, disclosures to: employing, governmental or authorized non-governmental agencies responsible for employment, contracting licensing, security clearances, and other suitability determinations; local, state, tribal, or federal law enforcement agencies; criminal justice agencies; and agencies responsible for national security or public safety.

Paperwork Reduction Act Statement:

This notice is given under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. The Paperwork Reduction Act requires that the Federal Bureau of Investigation inform individuals and other entities of the following when asking for information. The information on this form will be utilized to make an electronic credit card payment in Pay.gov, which is owned and operated by the Department of Treasury, for the biometric and Identity History Services utilized to complete the request made on the respective Applicant Information form, 1-783. This fee is established pursuant to the provisions of 31 U.S.C. 9701 and is based upon the clerical time beyond the first quarter hour to be spent in searching for, identifying, and reproducing each Identification Record requested.

The estimate average burden associated with this collection is 2 minutes per respondent, depending on individual circumstances. Comments concerning the accuracy of this burden estimate and suggestions for reducing this burden should be directed to Department Clearance Officer, United States Department of Justice, Justice Management Division, Policy and Planning Staff, Washington, DC 20530.

An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number.
